Homecoming 73-74

An aura of sobriety dominated the traditionally festive Homecoming celebration held October 5, 6, and 7. This year's events were dedicated to the memory of Lennie Haker of Stanford, Montana. Lennie a freshman football player was killed in a plane crash a week before the traditional events. Dean Roberts made the dedication to the memory of Lennie at the coronation ceremony, at which time Miss Joyce Sajor was crowned queen and Joe Hiller King for 1973. After a bon-fire the students went to the catacombs for an evening of festivities. The following morning warm fall colors accented the parade route through downtown Helena as classes and clubs displayed their spirit in floats, goon squads and other assorted parade displays. That afternoon the ever victorious Fighting Saints stomped Rocky Mountain College on their way to the Frontier Conference Crown. Everyone gathered that evening at Jorgenson's Holiday Inn ballroom for the dance which was well attended. The Alumni breakfast and mass on Sunday morning crowned what would be Carroll's major social event of the year.

School for Wives

The Carroll College Little Theatre Company produced one of the most diversified and challenging season to be staged at Carroll College. A record attendance viewed Tennessee William's A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE, Moliere's SCHOOL FOR WIVES, William Shakespeare's THE MERCHANT OF VENICE, and Neil Simon's PLAZA SUITE.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE was lauded by both the best actor and actress being selected from its cast. Chris Grennan was selected as the best actor for his portrayal of Mitch. Patty O'Malley was awarded the best actress scroll for her performance as Blanche. Also nominated were Joyce Meuchel for the role of Stella and Bob Roy for the role of the paper boy. Pete Alyea, last year's winner, was nominated for his performance in SCHOOL FOR WIVES along with Richard a Wakefield for the same show.

Patty O'Malley also received two other awards. She was given the Production Award for her costume design for SCHOOL FOR WIVES, and was given a financial grant for overall contribution to the Little Theatre.

ATHLETICS

Football

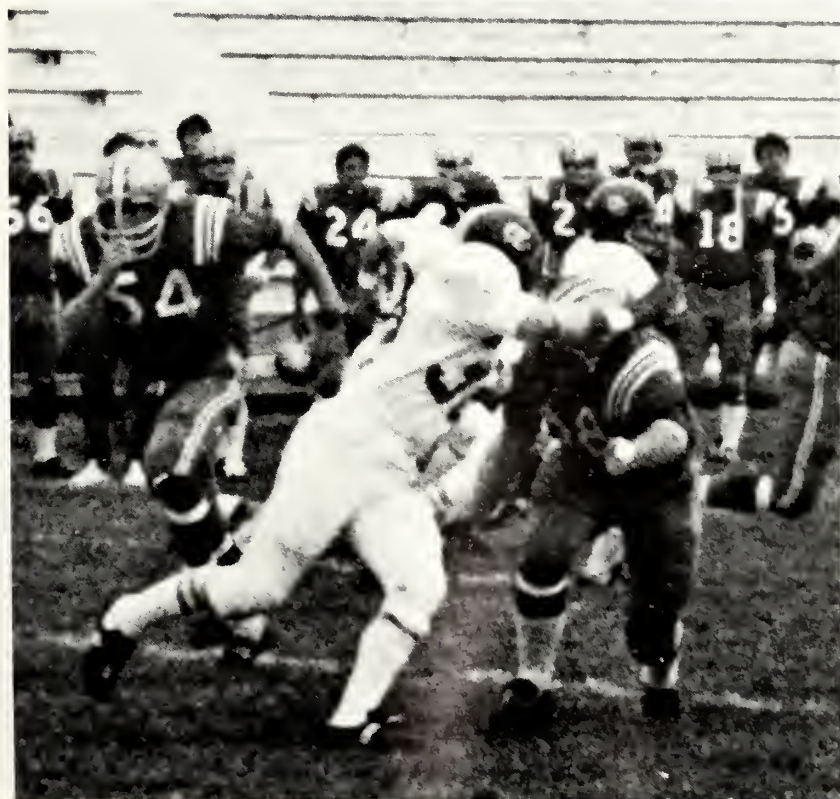

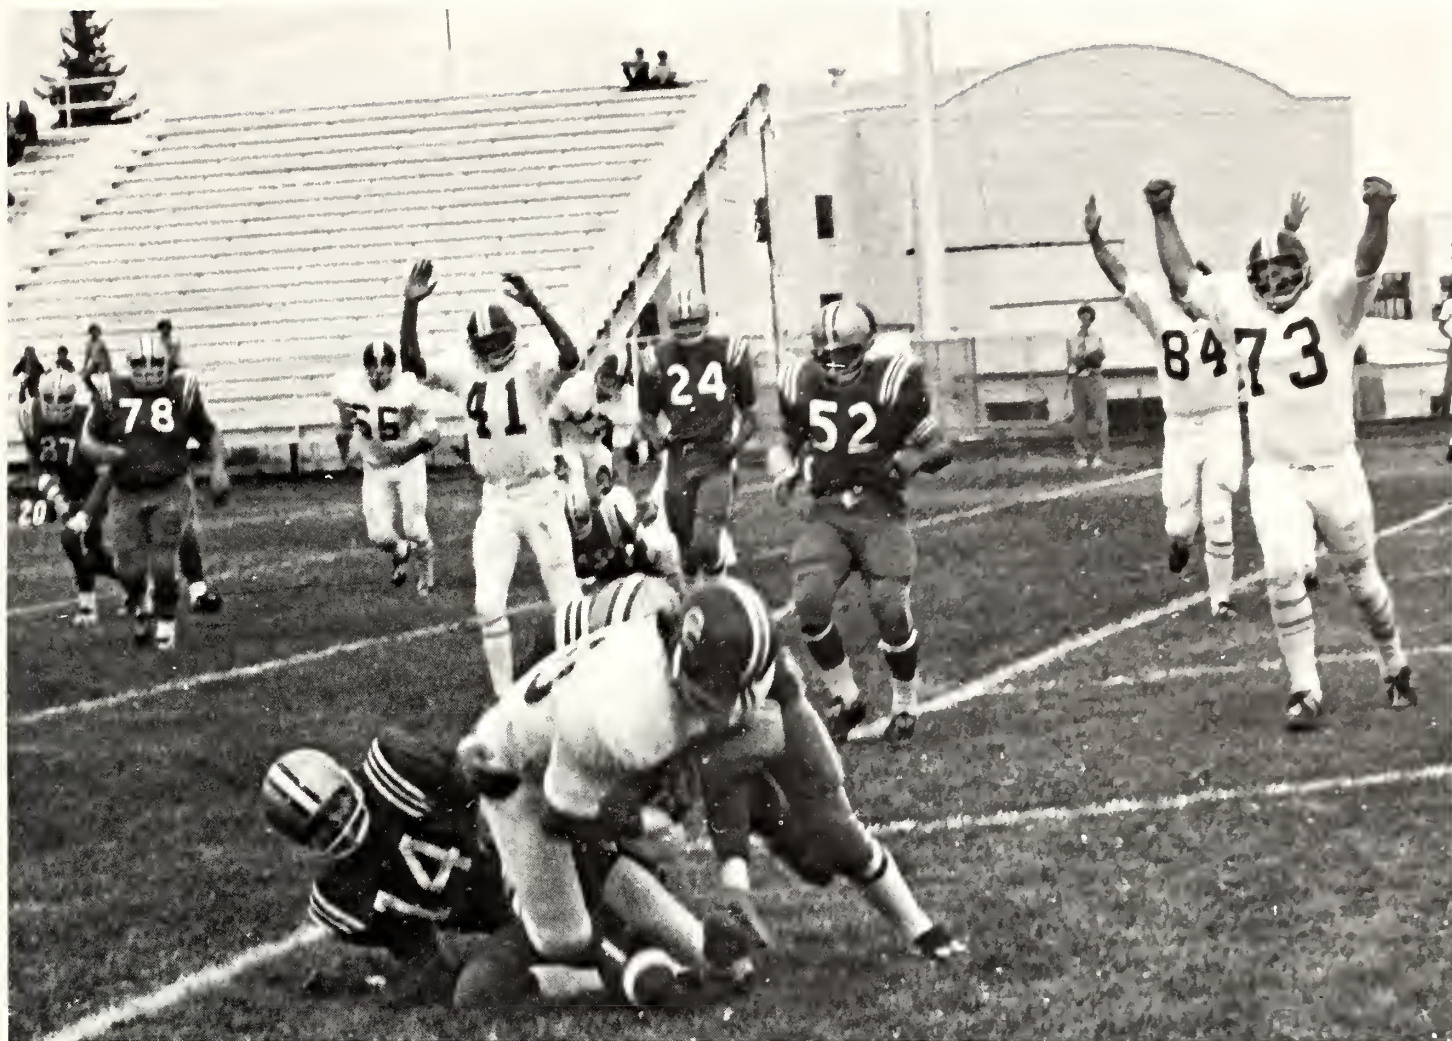

The Carroll Fighting Saints started off the season with a bang! Carroll's first game against Ricks College from Rexburg, Idaho showed off the shining offense and defense that the Saint's possessed with a 26-6 victory. After the game against Ricks, a pattern formed that was to lead Carroll to the Frontier Conference Championship ranking 7th in NAIA Ratings.

Although the Saints faced a certain number of season injuries, we were lucky that younger and less experienced kids came through for us when key players were hurt.

Early in the season, Carroll's starting quarterback, Rod Moore who suffered a knee injury couldn't finish out the season. A blow to Carroll's fine offensive line up, but Jim Von Doehren proved to be an outstanding player filling in the vacant slot.

Carroll's offensive and defensive line up was certainly the strongest in the Frontier Conference.

Individual Performances Highlight Season Play

Dan Rambo a 200 lb. Junior from Libby who started out the season as a defensive back ultimately became one of the best running backs in the Frontier Conference with 17 pro teams watching his progress.

Rambo lead the offense of the Saints being the leading rusher averaging 125 yards per game and scoring 12 touchdowns for a total of 80 points.

Rambo was named to the Frontier All-Conference Team as well as the Little All-American.

Randy Triplett a 200 lb. Junior from Wolf Creek proved to be one of the most effective defensive tackles in the Conference. Triplett also was named with the Little All-Americans.

Forensics

1973-4 saw another banner year for the Carroll College Forensic Team. Twelve trophies were won by the squad against competing Colleges and Universities from throughout the western section of the United States. This mark of accomplishment equals exactly the record of the 1972-3 team, who had set the school record for the number of trophies won by a Carroll team in a single season.

The team attended seven tournaments during the school year. These Speech and Debate Tournaments ranged in size from seven to twenty-three schools. The Carroll speakers never failed to win at least one trophy at each tournament and also won awards in every event sometimes during the school year. The competing events are Debate, Extemporaneous Speaking, Oral Interpretation, Oratory, and Expository Speaking.

We will lose three very talented seniors this year, so some rebuilding is in order to compete effectively next season.

The team members during the 1973-4 season were: Seniors: Peggy Mangan, Peggy O'Malley, Ed Sheehy. Sophomores: Dan Flanagan, JoAnne Jordan, Jack McLean, Pat Mealey, Jocelyn Sajor, Doloras Cikrit.
